

Sanada, Akari
 Hokkaido University of Education Assault
 tuggt4200@gmail.com

Sangiam, Panuwat
 Phuket Rajabhat University
 PERANAKAN PATTERN
 Panuwat@pkru.ac.th

Sangwalpetch, Noppadon
 Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University CONTEXT #3
 noppadon.sa@ssru.ac.th

Sanjeewa, Sagara
 Knowledge Media Systems
 Open-ended
 sagararajakse@gmail.com

Sano, Tohru
 Osaka University
 NO BOUNDARY WITH THE BACK
 sanoru@mtj.biglobe.ne.jp

Seo, Dongjin
 Sangmyung University
 Blurring Space Cubes III
 sdjin@hanafos.com

PERANAKAN PATTERN

ลายเปอร์นากัน

concept

The distinctive characteristics of Peranakan include floral, building or costume, and the style of the Malacca Chinese people. They called each their own of the Chinese and maintaining the Peranakan is in the to call "Peranakan" is a group of folks in Chinese mixed together and is called "Peranakan" meaning local Peranakan design. There is a traditional pattern that is the use of the use of floral patterns and geometric shapes. Styles are actual Chinese and South Asian. They can often be seen in southern Thailand and Singapore.

The Peranakan life was bright and beautiful. There is a clear contrasting color. The pattern is usually floral or geometric pattern. The shape joined together the colors of Peranakan like that we seen are purple, green, pink, blue, yellow or red. The characteristics the work include use patterns, lotus patterns, peony patterns, or traditional shapes.

Patterns of Peranakan often in addition to being used for flooring or used to decorate balconies, windows and hallways. They also have been used for control chairs with the building such as wood walls. The big patterns are pebbles, peony, and red, etc. often used the several pattern. The building and decorations are famous, and especially Asian. It is shown that add value to the city.

