SCOPE

Our editorial policy focuses on publishing current and cutting-edge research in the hospitality and tourism industry worldwide. Similar to its sister journal – International Journal of Contemporary Hospitality Management (IJCHM) – Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Insights (JHTI) welcomes different disciplines, perspectives, and methods. All theoretical, empirical and applied manuscripts related to various sectors within the hospitality and tourism industry will be considered for publication. Manuscripts can be based on theoretical arguments, empirical findings, case studies, and/or methodological developments. Qualitative, quantitative and mixed methodology submissions are all welcome. Manuscripts related to planning, accounting, finance, information systems and technology, marketing, consumer behaviour, human resources, economics, international business, operations, strategic management, innovation, entrepreneurship, sustainability and green issues, socio-cultural aspects, corporate social responsibility, stakeholder engagement, planning and development and ethics in hospitality and tourism are considered for publication. Contributions are particularly welcome from practitioners, professionals and academics working in private, public and non-profit organisations globally.

Dear,

I would like to submit my paper titled "Assessing the Contribution of Ecosystem Protection to the Development of Ecotourism Attractions in Rwanda: A Case Study of Volcanoes National Park" for your review and possible publication in the Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Insights (JHTI).
